A glimpse of the sea.

Stepney is behind him. The sea and the sun are before him. He stands as typical of 15,000 little East-Enders—the children of poverty—who are looking for, and longing for, a sight of the sea.

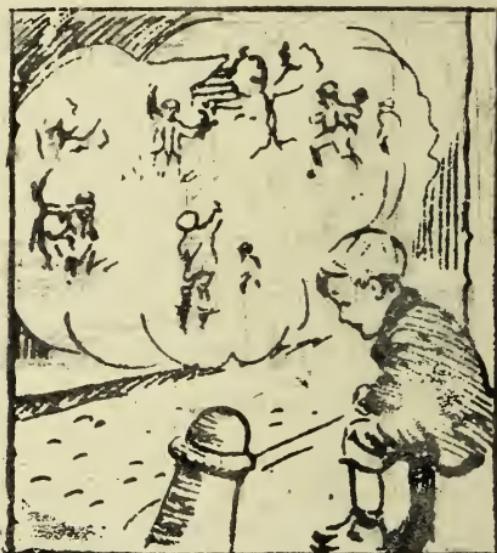

Please give it.

The Vision.

HERE is another picture. What is the child dreaming about? It is easy to see. Shall his dream come true, or shall the vision vanish—unrealised?

Last year 15,000 children from East London's Endless Environs had a day at the seaside. 500 sickly boys and girls had a fortnight by the sea, thanks to the gifts of subscribers to the East End Mission. How many shall go this year? Write to-day, enclosing your gift to—

The Rev. F. W. Chudleigh,

583, Commercial Road, E. 1.

The Vision Realised.

A SIGHT of the sea—that is a sovereign remedy for such as are sick and sorrowful.

The journey begins.

Nature can do what medicines fail to accomplish. The longer the stay, the greater the benefit. Yes! that is true; but our funds have hitherto only permitted us to give 500 a fortnight. The 15,000 have had to be content with a day, just one day at Southend.

But it is a glorious day, a marvellous day, a wonderful day, a day to be anticipated for six months, enjoyed for twelve hours, remembered for six months. How much does that day cost? 2/-! That works out at 2d. an hour. Not much, is it by which to give so much happiness?

The journey has ended.

30s. gives a delicate child a fortnight by the sea.

Making a new acquaintance.

His first innings on grass.

The East End Mission was established in 1885, under theegis of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference. But in all its philanthropic and social work it is absolutely undenominational. Need not Creed is the criterion.

The work so briefly outlined in this Appeal is only a part of the efforts which are made day by day all the year round without intermission. You can scarcely realise how greatly your help is needed.

Please send to Rev. F. W. Chudleigh, East End Mission, 583, Commercial Road, Stepney, London, E.1.
